No Good

It's Good

Review:

Rob L - First off, I have to say that I loved the General Petraeus robot. "Would you like to see a pie chart?" Funny! Second, where did you get the guy who plays Dick Cheney? He could be Cheney's twin. This was a great video, made me laugh. My rating "It's Good"

Rob B - This video was funny, but Bush being a giant man child is tired, over played. Make him a brainiac, make him so smart that he can't see the truth. As for the robot joke, again funny, but not knee slapping. Pie charts are funny, but I wanted more from this. Slow and misstepping, I can't give this a "Its Good" rating. I want them to redo this, but this time could they bring the funny? "No Good!!!!"
